| Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to overcome this challenge             | The most significant challenge I faced was studying abroad, away from my family and friends. I chose this because I knew that I can do it ( inshallah) and it was a dream of mine to do so. I always challenge myself to do things, like take Advanced Placement (AP) classes, or give a speech in front of a lot of people. Studying abroad is something not really easy to do, but it always depends on how you view it. Anytime I feel homesick, or I feel like I want my family and friends here, or even feel alone, I always remind myself about the positive things like coming to Dublin, Ireland to follow my dream of studying medicine in the number one top college in Ireland, and meet new people, and get to know and learn about a new culture and lifestyle.  |
| You are required to spend the next year of your life in either the past or the future. What year would you travel and why? | This is a pretty good question. I would really love to travel to the past, and re-live some of the good moments. I picked the past instead of the future, because the future will come one way or another, but you can never bring the past back. So why not take the chance to re-live the past, and just wait for the future to come and be patient. I would probably like to live the year when I was in 3rd grade, where everyone was friends, and color, gender, religion, and race did not matter. Kids are always the greatest, most innocent people. Sometimes you would learn from a kid, more than you would learn from a grown up.  |
| What would you say is your greatest talent or skill? how have you developed and demonstrated that talent over time         | I would say my greatest talent is painting. I love the feeling of mixing paint and painting on a canvas. I actually started painting since elementary, and my mom used to bring me to art classes after school and during the summer. I have developed so much over the past years. I have to admit, I wasn't that good at it, but by practicing, I got better over the years and started joining competitions. I joined two competitions in 2017, one was about anti-smoking, and the other was about forming a masterpiece from recycled things, which turned out to be one of my favourite masterpiece I have so far made. I went from just drawing on sketch paper to drawing and painting on canvas. I am still continuing art even if I am studying abroad. I joined an art workshop at my university, and have also learned lots of great new things. |
| What have you done to make your school or community a better place   | I have joined different societies at my school such as INJAZ and MUN. I also joined sports such as basketball and badminton. I always volunteer during any carnivals, or even events at school, such as filming the drama class play, and taking pictures during the art exhibition. I also sometimes sit with kids and read books to them. I also always love to give advice to my peers, and hear them when they want someone to talk to. I also tutor some of my classmates before a test. Giving back to the community feels better than receiving.  |
| What makes you happy?  | Making other people happy, giving back, and treating others the way I want to be treated, doing good every day, following my dream and never giving up.  |
| How did you hear about The Proteges program  | TV ad  |
