Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to overcome this challenge	the most difficult challenge for me would becoming social I grew up in a very tight circle combining that with being shy and at most time not being able to speak a feeling where you want to say something but it isn't coming out of you was very saddening for me. With time I took to reading to become more informative in different topics so if any topic comes up I could have some useful information and engage in more conversations, in addition to putting myself out there to get to know new people whether going to events or big social gatherings. once thing left to another and I've much improved but not to the level I want it to be.
You are required to spend the next year of your life in either the past or the future. What year would you travel and why?	I would travel to the past around 1961. I would travel to this year because Kuwait started to change at this point starting with Kuwaitis independence and the finding of oil in Kuwait. Culturally the Kuwaiti community was more social and it was a turning point in Kuwait where people started travelling, building new homes, building present day Kuwait city a time of advancements I would say. I would've loved to not just be with the change but making it also.
What would you say is your greatest talent or skill? how have you developed and demonstrated that talent over time	I would say my greatest talent is motivating others to achieve their goals. I started out reading books in self help and setting life goals. Overtime I've given people small pieces of information of what I learned little by little they started always coming back for me for advise many people close and far about, that they themselves is enough to start achieving their goals and creating for them a positive outlook in life.
What have you done to make your school or community a better place	Since returning to Kuwait in 2017, Ive started a volunteer group to aware people about the negative effects of overusing cell phones and becoming very dependant on it, that has negative effects on the person and others around them.
What makes you happy?	seeing people happy.
